Local Color

Thousands of Peninsula residents noted the beginning of a new era over their breakfast boiled eggs Tuesday, with virtually every radio and TV set in town tuned to the inauguration ceremonies. The Republican Women's Club turned out in triumphant numbers to pack the lounge of Del Monte Lodge, where two television sets were installed for their delectation. However, many hundreds of Carmel kids who had looked forward to seeing the historic occasion were disappointed when word came that they would not, as promised earlier, be permitted to view the TV broadcast outside of school. Particularly unhappy were the 100-odd kids who queued up expectantly outside the Youth Center, and were ignominiously herded back to their classrooms by police.

Best-from-Britain Carolyn Elstob recently paid a visit to the British Consulate in San Francisco, and returned loaded with posters, magazines, pictures and whatall relating to the forthcoming Coronation. Carolyn isn't certain yet whether or not she'll be able to go over for the great event, but her daughter Lucy says, "I'll go there if I have to walk from here to New York and swim the Atlantic Ocean!"

A newcomer made her appearance in Pebble Beach society last week. She's Eleanor Jane Hubbard, born Wednesday morning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hubbard--he's manager of Del Monte Lodge, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Cordrey of the Valley last week welcomed a son, Phillip Byington; and a daughter Deborah Joan was born to the Richard Snyders, Mr. and Mrs. John Stinson are the parents of a son, Kim Whitcomb; while the William Wisharts boast a new son-and-heir, Peter Brian.

George and Helene Vye just returned from a year's sojourn in France, and plan on settling down for a while. Helene will probably go back to her old position as manager of one of the better dress shops on Ocean Avenue.

A snappy slogan last week won $50 for Mausita Kreisler of the Browse-Around Music Shop. Mrs. Kreisler received the welcome lagniappe for completing a statement dealing with the virtues of a particular brand of phonograph needle.

Pamela Perry, daughter of the Thomas K. Perrys, celebrated her eleventh birthday with a party at the Beach Club last Sunday. Her guests, who enjoyed ice cream, cake, and a movie, were Joy Walker, Sydney Leonard, Katie Dunning, Nickey Wilson, Jan Westcott, Marcia McGinnis, Patsy Richards, Ellen McKelvey, Jean Fehring, Mary Ann Purvis, Diane Miller, and Mary Wizzager.

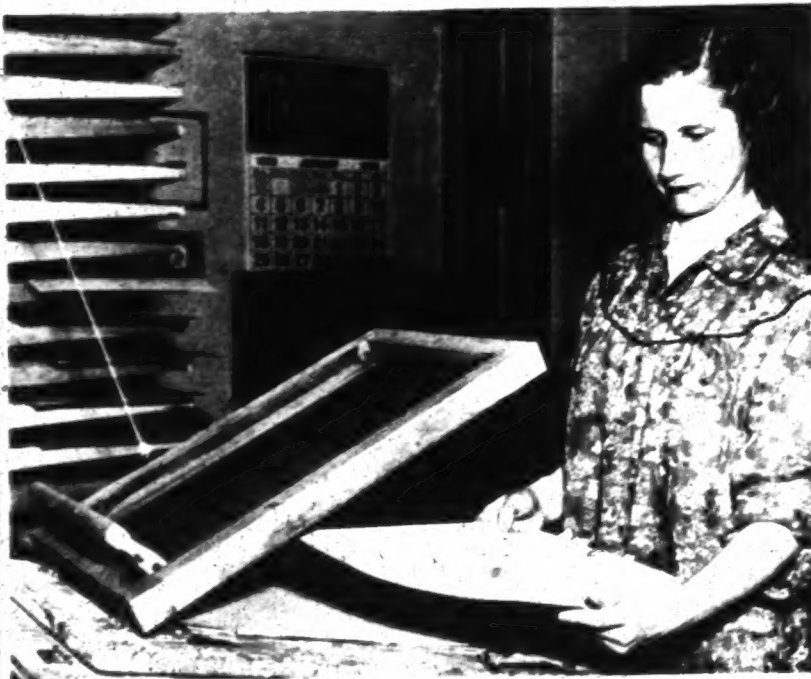

A local dog owner reports the discovery of an incidental, but possibly significant, property of chlorophyll. He found that the ingestion of several of "nature's own green" tablets rendered his generally popular female poodle totally uninteresting to dogs of the opposite sex.

All Saints' Church is handsomely featured in a cover picture and a six-page illustrated article in the December issue of "Architect and Engineer"--another tribute to architect Robert Jones' outstanding (and highly photogenic) design. Photographer Art McEwen was responsible for the many excellent pictures of the church which accompany the article.

A great rumbling, thumping, and shaking which caused buildings to tremble brought alarmed denizens of Seventh St. rushing to their doors last week. The cause of the pseudo-tremor, however, turned out to be a very small red road-roller, slowly moving backwards down the street.

We dropped in on the first rehearsal of the Bach Festival chorus Tuesday, intending simply to look around, and found ourselves summoned by the imperious finger of Gastone Usigli for a tryout. Disregarding our explanations, he directed us to sing a scale or two; the sorry result apparently convinced him of the dubious value of a female bass-baritone in the chorus. This incident past, we are able to report that some thirty choristers, many of them alumni of previous Bach Festivals, showed up in good voice for the first taste of the massive "St. Matthew Passion", the performance of which promises to be one of the outstanding achievements of any of the festivals to date. The Maestro was in fine form, singing falsetto with the sopranos, rumbling with the basses, and generally shaping up the chorus with his own phenomenal energy and spirit. "Now it is a nightmare," he remarked, "but soon it will be a delightful dream." To the chorus he said, "By April you will be full of this music--and you will all be richer."

PENINSULA CRAFTSMEN

Nancy Johnson, whose silk-screen cards signed "Nancy of Carmel" are sold all over the country, is representative of the considerable group of craftsmen on the Peninsula who, as distinct from hobbyists or artsy-craftsy dilettantes, are making a full-time, profitable business in a medium which combines both the useful and the fine arts.

Most of these craftsmen, like Nancy, established themselves on the Peninsula because they felt it a privilege to live here, and found the environment hospitable to their enterprises. In combining the personal satisfaction of doing creative work with the practical necessity of earning a living, they have achieved something fairly unique in these times, and have provided the Peninsula with one of its outstanding, though small-scale industries.

This, then, is the first in a series which will appear from time to time in The Spectator dealing with the individuals and operations involved in this local crafts industry--a factor contributing to the national reputation of the Monterey Peninsula as a center of the arts.

Nancy Johnson is a cheerful, energetic, personable girl with a great enthusiasm for her work and the cause of craftsmen generally. Born in the Middle West, she moved with her family to California in the '30's. In 1935 they came to Carmel, and here Nancy embarked on her training in fine arts at the Carmel Art Institute, then under the direction of Kili Whitman. She later attended San Jose State, obtaining her teaching credentials, and then spent several years teaching art in high schools.

The turning point in her career came when she more or less abruptly decided that she would rather be practicing art than teaching it. Her art training had provided her with a basic knowledge of silk-screening; the medium seemed to be one in which she could both do creative art in a small way, and produce something which might be marketable. She decided to have a go at it.

Nancy managed to borrow her initial capital, and set up her studio in her parents' garage. Utilizing suggestions from local shopkeepers and fellow craftsmen, she gradually expanded the scope of her operations and found local outlets for her work. To Alberta Brooks, then owner of the Handcraft Cottage, Nancy gives special credit for early subsidization. "She did more than encourage me," says Nancy; "she bought my things!" Ultimately, Nancy sent some samples of her silk-screen work to the San Francisco Merchandise Mart--the beginning of a chain-reaction that resulted in her now having work on display in major wholesale centers all over the country.

This is the sixth year of Nancy's self-employment as a silk-screen artist; for the past year her operations have been located in a pleasant basement studio on the court in the rear of the Mediterranean Market. The selection of a hide-away location was strictly from necessity; as Nancy points out, most Carmel artists and craftsmen can't afford strategic locations on Ocean Avenue.

The studio-shop is strictly a one-woman establishment; in between designing, sketching and silk-screening, Nancy attends to walk-in customers and her wholesale contacts. Displayed around the studio are samples of her work; handsomely designed Christmas cards, silk scarves, decorated tally cards and enclosures, and small silk-screen prints of landscape and landmarks around the Peninsula--"regular bread-and-butter items", Nancy calls them. The Christmas cards are her best sellers, with the demand increasing each year; approximately half of her total distribution is on the East Coast. Outside of her business, Nancy is an enthusiastic member-supporter of the Carmel Crafts Guild, an organization which has done much towards promoting and displaying the work of local craftsmen.

Her process of silk-screening is fairly standard, though methods vary. First, Nancy draws a master design, indicating shading and colored areas. Next, a transparent stencil film is placed over the design, and the portion of the drawing to be printed is cut out. Then the film is adhered to a silk screen stretched on a wooden frame; the areas not to be printed are blocked out with lacquer. Finally, paint is placed on the screen and carried over the design with a rubber squeegee. The process is repeated for every color to appear on the finished product.

Nancy makes no bones about her work--it's hard, and it demands steady eight-hours-a-day production in order to keep up with her customers. Many craftsmen fail to make a commercial success of their work, says Nancy, simply because they don't recognize the fact that when one is supplying a steady market, the work must be done on some sort of mass-production basis. "People can do these things, if they want to," she says, "but it takes more than just enthusiasm. If you have enough imagination and enterprise, you can make your work sell!"

And for Nancy Johnson, the imagination, enterprise, and hard work have paid off. She enjoys the pride of an artist in her work, the security of a successful businesswoman, and above all, the satisfaction of knowing she did it all herself.

NOTED CONTRALTO TO APPEAR WITH SYMPHONY HERE

An operatic contralto of international repute, Miss Eva Gustavson, will be the featured artist when the Monterey County Symphony presents its second concert of the season this Tuesday, January 27, at 8:30 in the Sunset Auditorium.

Born in Norway, Miss Gustavson had her initial training in Oslo. Later she studied with the Royal Opera of Stockholm--ultimately becoming one of its leading prima donnas. Her career took her from Scandinavia to all the music centers of Europe, where she enjoyed an increasingly impressive reputation as an opera and concert artist.

In 1949 Miss Gustavson visited this country, and shortly thereafter was selected by Maestro Arturo Toscanini to sing the coveted role of Amneris in his famed radio-television broadcast of Verdi's "Aida".

Miss Gustavson has sung major roles in operas ranging from Verdi to Wagner; her most celebrated role, however, is that of Carmen, the fiery heroine of Bizet's greatest work. For her appearance with the symphony, Miss Gustavson has elected to sing two famous arias from Act I of this opera: the "Habanera" and the "Seguidilla". She will also be heard in "My Heart at thy Sweet Voice" from "Samson and Delilah", and two songs in Norwegian, "Eros" and "In the Mountains" by Edvard Grieg.

The complete orchestral program will be as follows: Overture from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" by Mendelssohn; an excerpt from the "Scherzade" suite by Rimsky-Korsakov; a chorale from the "Easter Cantata" by J. S. Bach; and the second and third movements from the Symphony in (Continued on Page 11)

FIFTY SERVICE AWARDS GIVEN BY RED CROSS CHAPTER

MORTALS PREPARE FOR GALA "NIGHT WITH THE GODS"

Preparations for the third annual Arts Ball, sponsored by the Carmel Art Association, are fast approaching a peak of activity, with the gala event only two weeks off. The scene of the ball will again be the Del Monte Lodge, the date, Saturday night-February 7.

The theme is "A Night With The Gods," and just about anything goes in the way of costumes, insofar as they bear some relation to the legends and myths of the naughty dieties of antiquity. Greek, Roman, Viking, Oriental or Barbaric costumes will be in order; non-anthropomorphic characterizations, such as fauns, satyrs, and monsters, are also considered to be within the scope of the theme.

Climax of the revelries will be the pageant entitled "The Return of Aphrodite" which is being directed and prepared by Tom Brock and Robert Carson of the Wharf Theatre, with the Wharf Players assisting in the production. According to advance promotion, this elaborate masque will be spectacularly and glamorously beautiful, depicting the return of the gods and goddesses for a terrestrial orgy. The love-goddess herself will be enacted by beautiful Mary Buckner, who, rumor has it, will be undressed to the teeth for her role.

Doors will open at 9:30, and Pat Coleman's orchestra will commence to make music at 10. The grand march will get under way at 11 p. m., to be followed by the awarding of prizes for the most beautiful, authentic, and humorous costumes. Aphrodite and her entourage will materialize im-

The few TV sets in Carmel were popular centers of attraction on Tuesday, with standing room only in living rooms and, so we hear, at the MPTV office showroom.

When Miss Dorothea Chalmers saw her home packed to the galleries, she grabbed her large Graflex and ran to a friend's house. The friend has bought a set only recently and only her immediate neighbors are on to its existence.

Miss Chalmers set up her camera on a tripod, per the instructions in a technical magazine which she, with the help of the Harrison Memorial Library staff, had spent all Saturday afternoon digging out of the basement files. Further instructions included aperture and shutter settings for the camera. The ideal, so it claimed, for fast film is f. 4.5 at 1/10 of a second. The lens on the Super D Graflex does not open to f. 4.5 so Miss Chalmers had to compromise by shooting at 1/5 at f. 5.6.

The result can be seen in the accompanying picture of Chief Justice Vison administering the oath of office to our new President of the United States, Dwight D. Eisenhower, which came underground on the Peninsula cable.

PLANNING COMM. UNANIMOUS FOR REAPPOINTMENT OF TWO MEMBERS

P. A. McCreery and Mrs. Hurd Comstock, whose terms expired this week, were unanimously reappointed to the Planning Commission at the regular meeting Wednesday by vote of its members. The City Council is expected to sanction the appointments before its next meeting in February. This will mark McCreery's third term as member and chairman of the Commission.

The Commission also approved plans for an extension of the Nielsen Bros. office building at Seventh and Lincoln Streets, and plans for a 10-unit apartment house to be located on the West side of San Carlos between Fourth and Fifth. Both sets of plans were submitted by architect Tom Elston.

Chairman McCreery called for a clear-cut policy regarding the relative responsibility of property owners and the City in the trimming of trees. The Commission discussed the proposed landscaping and planting of particular "bare" areas in town, with particular reference to the lower Ocean Avenue. (Continued on Page 11)

FORT ORD GOLF TOURNAMENT

Fort Ord Golfers will get a chance to match their skill against fellow soldiers when the Fort Ord Winter Golf Tournament begins February 16.

The tournament will be held on Watsonville Golf Course and will continue Feb. 17, 23, and 24.

The annual tourney will be conducted in two parts with 18 holes included in the handicap for match play. Fifty-four holes will comprise the tournament, with as many eight-man flights as necessary.

Medal play will be on the opening day with match play on the remaining three days.

Slightly modified Winter Tournament rules of the United States Golf Association will govern the play. Some of the modifications will allow: balls to be cleaned or replaced on the green at any time, putts nearest the hole may be holed out first, and a provisional ball will be played on all occasions where a ball has been hit that is possibly lost or out of bounds.

There will be no green fees and prizes will be awarded on the final day of play.

MEETING OF S.P.C.A. DIRECTORS

Enos Fouratt of Carmel was last week elected to the Board of directors of the Monterey County Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals at the annual meeting of the organization at the Monterey Public Library. Re-elected to the board were Dr.

Ralph Weston and Noel Sullivan. Fifty-two members of the organization attended the meeting, presided over by President Sullivan, who gave a summary of the year's accomplishments. Reports were heard from Dr. Weston, chairman of the shelter and clinic committees and director of the education program, from the Countess Kinnoull, membership chairman, Clyde Dorsey, treasurer, and Mrs. D. L. Jeffers, secretary.

The board of directors, which includes Mrs. Grace Butler, Col. Shelburn Robison, King Mederos, Mrs. Lewis Terven, and Jules Kahhofer, will meet in February to elect new officers for 1953.

The can-can chorus is always the high point of "Gaité Parisienne", the popular and exuberant ballet which will be the feature number presented here by the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo Concert Company on February 3 in Sunset Auditorium. With choreography by Massine and music by Offenbach, the Concert Company's production of "Gaité Parisienne" is a spanking new one, from costumes to soloists. Also scheduled for the program, which is the second event in the current season sponsored by the Carmel Music Society, are Tchaikowsky's classic "Swan Lake", a light-hearted contemporary work, "Cirque de Deux", and the "Bluebird" pas de deux. Special season tickets are still available for the remaining five concerts of the season, and may be obtained at the Graham Music Company. A few single admission tickets are also available.

IRENE DODD—YOUNG LADY GOING PLACES

In just a few years, she has advanced in the telephone business from student operator to assistant chief

In August, 1943, Irene Dodd came to work for Pacific Telephone as an inexperienced student operator. Since then, she's had several promotions—to operator in charge, supervising operator, and recently to her present position as assistant chief operator. This is a familiar telephone success story. For advancing our telephone men and women as their skill and experience grows is just one more way we work to make your telephone ever more efficient and valuable to you.

Every day is exciting for Mrs. Dodd who, like many telephone women, has combined marriage and her career. She enjoys keeping house as much as she enjoys helping people with their telephone calls. Gratifying, too, is the feeling that she is helping new people get ahead in the telephone world. It's all part of telephone tradition—a tradition of service which insures that a well-trained force of men and women stands behind the good telephone service you enjoy every day.

A good place to work

One reason why telephone jobs are good jobs is the fact that each year thousands of telephone men and women are promoted to more responsible positions in the hundreds of communities we serve locally here in the Pacific West. Their goal: to help keep your telephone service the finest in the world.

MONETREY AREA BOY SCOUT COUNCIL MEETING TO BE HELD JANUARY 31

Lloyd Owens, Monterey, general chairman of the Monterey Bay area Boy Scout council's annual meeting, made known today his committee appointments who will be responsible for the affair which will be held at the San Carlos Hotel, Monterey, Saturday, January 31, starting with dinner at 6:15 p. m. Tickets, Owens stated, must be purchased in advance from Robert E. Ross, Monterey, or directly from Boy Scouts of America, Salinas National Bank Building, Salinas. Any adult interested in Scouting may attend. Ladies are welcome. Price of each ticket is $3.00 which includes all charges.

Elmer Hansen and James Moody will be responsible for physical arrangements; Warren Gipe and Steve Magyar for program; Dave Gove and Albert Berquist for reception; Mrs. Jack Dougherty and Mrs. Walter Swenson for ladies reception; Guy J. Pedroni and Russell Giles for finance.

The program will include short opening and closing ceremonies, music and entertainment, a brief business session, awards and recognition, including presentation of silver beaver awards for outstanding service to boys, a speaker, to be named, and dancing after the dinner session.

Since this is the twentieth annual dinner for the local scout organization which serves the counties of Monterey, San Benito, and Santa Cruz, special emphasis will be given to the council's growth during this period, according to Karl V. Christerson, president of the council. In 1933, when the council was born, there were only 36 Scout Units serving 651 boys in the three counties; today there are 178 Scout Units serving 4,473 boys. Other departments such as camping, activities, advancement, and finance have had similar increases.

There are three ways of getting out of a scrape—push out, back out and keep out.

BISHOP BLOCK AT ALL SAINTS

The Rt. Rev. Karl Morgan Block, D.D., LL.D., Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of California, will visit All Saints' Episcopal Church this Sunday, January 25, at 11 o'clock for the purpose of administering the Rite of Confirmation. The Bishop will be the guest preacher for the occasion. A coffee hour will be held in the parish hall immediately after the service to greet the Bishop and congratulate the Confirmands.

At the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church held in Boston, Massachusetts, last September, Bishop Block was elected Vice-President of the House of Bishop. He is also a member of the National Council.

CARMEL STUDENT NEW MPC PREXY

By Jane Lowrey

John Edmonds of Carmel is the new MPC Student Body President. John was elected Friday in a win over John Bartowick, also of Carmel. He will act as president of the Northern California Junior College Student Government Conference at Astilomar in March and also serve as one of three vice-presidents of the state conference at Astilomar in April.

Another Carmel student elected to student body office is Donna Douglas. She will be Commissioner of Social Affairs for the coming semester. Among her responsibilities will be a banquet and dance for approximately 400 representatives on the opening night of the state conference, April 9.

Bill Daniels, popular Carmel graduate, was elected to lead the sophomore class this semester by a unanimous vote.

Jane Lowrey faces Sandra Kaylar in a run-off for freshman class vice-president.

Alys Knight of Carmel and Margaret Harris have been appointed by head yell-leader Luis Wolter to lead MPC yells for the rest of basketball season.

Kim McRae submitted the prize-winning slogan in the MPC safety slogan contest. The winning slogan is: "Don't try to be a wheel at the wheel." Kim will be awarded three copies of the college yearbook, the "El Paisano."

Talking about dogs the other night—and Sandy Johnson topped everything off with a tall story about his fox terrier, "Boscum."

According to Sandy, "Comes bird season and that dog won't stir if I take down my rifle. Same if it's deer season and I go for my shotgun—he won't move, but he's scratching at the door if I so much as look at my rifle!"

One day, Sandy decided to fool him. He took down both his shotgun and his rifle—and swish, Boscum was on his way! So Sandy put the guns back and took out his fishing rod. He went outside and there was Boscum—digging like crazy for worms!

From where I sit, a dog that can outguess humans is as rare as a human that can outguess other humans. For instance, I like a glass of beer with lunch but I wouldn't think of pouring you one without first asking. Everybody has preferences—and it's finding out what they are and respecting them that keeps freedom from "going to the dogs."

There was standing room only at last week's membership meeting of the Carmel Valley Property Owner's Association held in the Community Chapel, as members and spectators packed in to elect new officers and debate the question of the new Carmel Valley Road.

The property owners' group has actively opposed the county-favored route, Plan A, favoring the peoples' choice, Plan B. Following a talk on county government by Walden Johnston (speaking above), director of the Monterey County Tax Council, the road discussion was opened by Lt. Gen. J. L. Underhill, past president of the Association. Although the anticipated fireworks failed to explode during the discussion, there were several hot exchanges of opinion between the "B's" and the lone "A" proponent, Thomas Verga, who appeared at the meeting to champion the much-maligned county favorite. As expected, the group voted unanimously to support a modified Plan B before the County Planning Commission at the next road hearing.

Harold Sand was elected new president of the property owners for 1953. Other newly elected officers are Lt. Gen. J. L. Underhill, 1st Vice President, Mrs. Edward Roxbury, 2nd Vice President, and Miss Orr Haseltine, Secretary-Treasurer.

CARMEL KIWANIS HOLD INDUCTION DINNER FOR INCOMING PRESIDENT

Carmel Kiwanis Club members hosted their wives at the club's annual dinner and induction of officers at the La Playa Hotel last Saturday night. The dinner was preceded by an informal cocktail party at the Hatton Fields home of outgoing Kiwanis president Tom Elston and Mrs. Elston.

President Elston reviewed a successful year, complimenting the Board of Directors and the Club upon the Kids' Halloween Party, "That's the Ticket", the Christmas play, and contributions to local charities and community work. The gavel was turned over to the new President Karl Patnude, who introduced his Vice President Donald Staniford, Treasurer Arne Halle and Secretary Arthur Hull, Fong Jing of Monterey, Past Lieutenant Governor of the District and Honorary Member of the Carmel Club, spoke of the District's growth.

President Patnude presented Past President Elston with a handsome desk barometer. He then introduced Dr. Karl Vit of the Army Language School, who spoke upon our precious heritage of freedom, and the task of preserving it.

Dr. Vit, a native of Czechoslovakia, ex-RAF officer, and an ordained minister, has made a series of 71 public addresses in California to warn Americans of the real and present menace of Communism. The most valuable possessions he has are the happiness, safety and future security of his charming Danish wife and his son here on the Monterey Peninsula. These treasures will be better assured when his hope of becoming a U. S. citizen is realized this June.

The dangers in the world to Democracy through Communism can be real here unless we realize and combat them. No one told Czechoslovakia what it meant to become a People's Democracy, a "Totalitarian" Soviet State. In 1918, Thomas Masaryk was the leader of their Republic, full of high hope in their constitution, based upon that of the U. S. His son adhered to those principles as did Dr. Beneš. At the end of the last war, the Russians walked into Prague to liberate the country. In a week, the propaganda against the U. S. began. Even then, the radio and newspapers were in Russian hands. In the election of '46, 35% voted for Communist candidates. The people believed that this percentage, alarming as it was, could be held in check. But Mr. Gottwald used it to establish a coalition party. Only a few posts were occupied by known communists. But the Minister of the Interior fired all non-communist policemen. The Minister of Education fired all but good party members. The Ministry of Industry took over all unions. Non-party businessmen found no more raw materials available. Independent newspapers found no newsprint to publish upon.

If your business failed, you were out of a job, had no ration card, and must take what the communists gave you to do. Christmas 1947, all the non-communist Ministers and leaders received mysterious gift packages. Fortunately, it was discovered in time that they were set to explode beneath the

WAGE REPORT DUE FEBRUARY 2ND.

R. H. Trappe, Auditor in Charge for the State Department of Employment in Monterey, said today that the deadline for filing unemployment insurance wage reports and contribution returns covering the fourth quarter of 1952 is midnight Monday, February 2.

"Normally, reports and returns would be delinquent if not filed and paid by January 31," Trappe said, "but inasmuch as January 31 falls on Saturday, state law permits an extension of the period until the next working day."

Christmas tree. With the growing confusion, just before the Spring elections, the Communists announced their discovery of a plot against the Government. To protect it for the people, they seized it and their police patrolled the streets. The radio described the Utopia coming under Stalin. Each business was taken over by a former employee communist. If you tried to leave the country, you could get no passport. You conformed, or else. To a proud free country to whom it could not happen, it happened. The men you trusted, you could not trust. The men who smiled, no longer smile at anyone. Liberty is dead. If we stay aware of these dangers to freedom, we can combat them. Dr. Vit's prayer is that God will help us to preserve our freedom forever.

Present at the dinner meeting were guests of honor, Dr. and Mrs. Karl Vit, District Lt. Governor Fong Jing, President and Mrs. Karl Patnude, Past President and Mrs. Thomas Elston, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Aldous, Commander and Mrs. Howell Armor, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gledhill, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Harrah, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hull, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Neroda, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nielsen, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sands, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Staniford, Donald Staniford, Jr., and a guest, Mrs. Anna Knox, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Tanous, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Timbers, Mr. and Mrs. William di Cristina, and Mr. John Ruster.

Nucleus of the swimming team at the Del Monte School for Boys at Pebble Beach is a bonafide Junior Olympic Champion, freshman Tony Dutton (above), son of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Dutton of Pebble Beach. Tony has won national recognition during the past year, when he took first-place awards in both the 100 yard breast stroke and the three-man medley relay in the Junior Olympics. The individual championship was won in 1952 and the relay championship in 1951. Both were won while Tony was competing as a member of the famous Berkeley City Club team. Other first-rate swimmers in the School include Pete Golden, back stroke, who competed last year for Lowell High School in San Francisco; Norman Ward, free-style, who was with the Menlo School team; Dick Duff, free-style, who swam for the Tamalpais Boys' School; and Mike Bingham of Carmel, who competed for the Montezuma School before coming to the Del Monte School. The school uses the Beach Club pool at Pebble Beach for instruction, practice, and meets. --Bob Ricklefs Photo.

BIXLER FIRST CHOICE FOR P.O.

Ernest Bixler is the number one choice for the much-contested position of Postmaster in Carmel, according to the results of a recent civil service examination. Number two on the list is Fred Mylar, a Republican, while third choice is Acting Postmaster Alfred Mollner, a Democrat.

Speculation is high as to whether Mylar, who enjoys the strategic advantage of being a Republican, will be appointed over Democrat Bixler, a former Postmaster here. George Tomlinson of the Young Republicans is preparing a petition which will be circulated on Mylar's behalf, and Vice-president Nixon and Senator William Knowland will reportedly intercede for Mylar in Washington.

Bixler resigned from the position of Postmaster in July of 1951, due to responsibilities and obligations connected with his business as a general contractor. Like Mylar, Bixler is a veteran, having served in the Seabees from November 1942 to July 1945. He has recently given up his building business, and has declared himself able and anxious to return to his former position.

Mylar was Assistant Postmaster under Bixler; following Bixler's resignation, Mollner was appointed to the head position. Subsequent examinations placed Mylar in the number one position, with Mollner second; due to this fact, and to protests from patrons, Mollner failed to receive positive confirmation of his appointment, and the examinations were reopened.

In addition to Bixler, Mylar, and Mollner, three others took the examination last September.

P.B.SPORTS CAR CLUB EVENT

Plans for future events and rallies were discussed at Monday's bi-monthly meeting of the Pebble Beach Sports Car Club at the Mission Ranch, with approximately 50 dues-paying members attending.

Several new members and their cars were introduced to the club. They were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Weer of Carmel, Bill Kappy of Carmel Valley, Walter Ullman of Carmel, and Col. B. W. Brady from the Army Language School.

Next event on the club's calendar is a "reliability run" next Sunday, February 1, to San Jose for the purpose of viewing the Autorama at the Civic Auditorium. Commencing at 9:30 a. m. from the S. P. Depot in Monterey, the sports cars will follow a route to be determined by Bob Baird, marshal for the event.

Two weeks ago several members of the group participated in a run to Paraiso Springs, marshalled by Dr. and Mrs. George Ham of Salinas in their MG and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson in a Jaguar. Winners of the run were announced at the meeting, with first place going to Ray Porcellus and Bill Rapier in an MG. Second were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Rose in a Humber, and third, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Woods in a Jaguar. The route to the Springs was so cunningly plotted that at least one member—namely, Derek Rayne—became somewhat lost, but a fine time was had by all.

Future plans include a "Riddle-me-Rea" (the nature of which is being kept strictly secret) on February 8, a weekend run to Ukiah on February 22, and a hounds-and-hare run on March 8. The club is also looking forward to the Golden Gate Gymkhana Trials in March, and the famed Pebble Beach sports car races in April.

LEAVES ON TRIP

Mrs. Lloyd Kindall of Pebble Beach left last Thursday for an extended trip which will include a cruise through the Caribbean islands and several stops in South America. First stop on Mrs. Kindall's agenda was New York City, where she joined relatives from Long Beach, Indiana. Following her Caribbean cruise, she will visit friends and relatives in the East and Middle West before returning to the Peninsula.

PHILATELISTS' STAMP SCRAMBLE

Local philatelists, generally a conservative bunch, could be seen Monday evening pawing and shoving over tables full of goods like so many bargain hunters at a Macy's sale. The cause of their unbridled behavior was a grab-bag of thousands of stamps scattered over the tables and proffered to the members of the Monterey Peninsula Stamp Club on a finders-keepers basis.

Over thirty members of the club participated in the scramble, and departed happily from the meeting with pockets, purses and envelopes bulging with the spoils. The stamps were donated for the occasion by Don Young, postmaster from Spreckles.

E. R. Blankenship presided over the meeting, which took place in the Carmel High School. Regular business included the hearing of reports from various committees and an exhibition of the stamp collection of E. R. Yount. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Oiler provided refreshments at the close of the meeting.

Next meeting of the club will be Monday, February 2, at 8 p. m.

REFURBISHING SCOUT HOUSE

Thanks to several donations and offers of help, the Carmel Girl Scout house will soon sport a new coat of paint, as well as some long needed carpentry work.

Labor and materials for the project are being supplied by various local organizations. A meeting will be held in the Scout House tomorrow morning to decide on the new color scheme, and determine when the work is to start.

Norman Winslow, with the blessings of the local Painters Union, has offered to do the painting; the Carmel Lion's Club will foot the bill for the paint. Carpentry work will be done gratis by the Monterey Peninsula Builders, with J. O. Handley of the Carmel Builders' Supply donating materials.

At some later date, the Carmel Kiwanis Club plans to donate brick work to repair and renovate the retaining wall in front of the building.

In the lounge of the High School, Thomas Dudley will speak on "Bidding at Stamp Auctions". All stamp collectors and their friends are invited to attend.

COLONEL HICKEY TO SPEAK ON PAKISTAN

Colonel Daniel W. Hickey, Jr., Commandant of the Army Language School, will present an informative lecture on the subject of "Pakistan" this Monday, January 26, at 8 p. m. in the parish hall of All Saints' Church.

The talk is sponsored by the World Affairs Council of the Monterey Peninsula, and the public is invited to attend without charge.

Col. Hickey is an acknowledged authority on his subject. Prior to his assignment to the Language School last June, he spent two years in Pakistan as Army attache and intelligence advisor to Ambassador Avari Warren at Karachi.

'SHOP' TALK

SHOP TALK

Galleries and Work Centers have been the headliners this week in my rounds. I only wish I could have more space to get in all the voluminous notes I have taken on the wealth of material, the talent, the treasures of creative art, that abound on this Peninsula. As it is, I'll have to narrow it down to the highlights.

First and foremost is Paul Sarkisian, Pfc., trainee at Ford Ord but, above all, PAINTER who has won First Prize at the Western Artists Show with the composition entitled "Sublime" which is now on loan at The Carmel Work Center Gallery, Pebble Beach. I'm a mere layman as far as being an artist is concerned--but "Sublime" is the most arresting painting I've ever seen in my life--go and see for yourself--it's worth it, I assure you.

Don't fail to see Duane Matterson's "Primitives in Pottery" at the Group Show running from now through February in the new Kurland Gallery at Pacific Grove (just opposite the PG plunge on Ocean-view Drive). His bowls, plates, Immediately after the awards ceremony, the pageant will run for approximately one-half hour. The remainder of the evening will be devoted to dancing and assorted bacchanalian rites.

Tickets for the ball are $2.50 (plus tax) per person, and may be obtained at the Carmel Art Association gallery, the Del Monte Lodge, and other leading hotels.

cup, etc., are created in the hand-made traditional way with primitive tools, exactly as done centuries ago and are a refreshing relief from the machine made pottery.

To be well dressed it's "Feet First" for Women so remember these dates:

February 20 and 21 At this time The Carolyn Kelsey Shop at Pebble Beach is pleased to announce a Showing of Spring Footwear from the Beverly Hills Shop of Saks Fifth Avenue with C. D. Selby as "Guest Artist"--or to be technical, representative.

Now is the transition in seasons and in wardrobes. The stunning imported suits from France and Italy are the perfect "tide over" costume--at Anna Katz on Ocean Avenue at the Court of the Golden Bough in Carmel. In fact, she features clothes for all occasions ranging from a trim bathing suit at $9.00 to a fabulous flaming red dinner gown at $150.00.

Proposed plans for a center parking strip on Junipero between Sixth and Eighth Streets, submitted by Commissioner Craig, were also considered by the members of the Commission.

NEW OFFICERS AT ORD P.T.A.

The Fort Ord Parent-Teachers Association at a regular monthly meeting last Monday experienced a large changeover of officers which included the resignation of Mrs. Louis Latronica as president and the election of Mrs. E. N. Umick to that position.

The position of treasurer, which was vacated on the transfer of Capt. E. E. Larson, is now vested in Lt. Alex Johnson.

The impending departure of the hospitality chairman, Mrs. Ruth Collings, created a vacancy which will be filled by Mrs. Dorothea Fortes. Mrs. Henry P. Landen, a new addition to the teaching staff, was introduced to the assemblage. Mrs. Landen will teach in the first grade group.

The next regular meeting is scheduled for February 9th.

KIWANIS MEETING

MUST FILE ALIEN ADDRESS IN JAN.

All aliens within the Monterey Peninsula area must submit an alien address report to the U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Office during the month of January, according to Charles Jordan, regional director of the Immigration and Naturalization Office in Salinas.

The law further requires that any alien who is temporarily absent from the United States during the 30-day reporting period shall report his address within 10 days after his return to this country.

The address report form may be obtained from any U. S. Post Office, or at any U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Office. The completed form must then be returned by hand to a clerk in the Post Office or the Immigration Office. Failure to report may result in deportation.
